The Victoria International Wine Festival is This Week!

Explore over 380 wines from 113 different wineries across 18 countries.

Victoria, BC – The highly anticipated Victoria International Wine Festival returns this Friday, October 4th, and Saturday, October 5th, at the Victoria Conference Centre. This year’s festival will spotlight Rioja, Spain’s most renowned wine region. It offers attendees a unique opportunity to experience the rich history and diverse flavours of this iconic region. Featuring exclusive tastings from some of the finest Rioja producers, the festival aims to immerse wine lovers in the craftsmanship and tradition that have defined Rioja for centuries. Whether you're a seasoned wine enthusiast or just beginning your journey, the festival promises an unforgettable experience filled with world-class wines, engaging presentations, and a celebration of wine culture from around the globe.

Attendees can look forward to sampling over 380 wines from 113 wineries representing 18 different countries. The festival provides a unique opportunity for seasoned and new wine enthusiasts to explore an incredible diversity of styles and regions.

“Our festival was born out of a desire to make the world of wine more approachable and exciting for everyone. Whether you're just starting your wine journey or have years of experience, we invite you to explore, enjoy, and uncover your next favourite bottle in an atmosphere that is welcoming and inspiring for all.” – David Bain, Event Director

With all-inclusive tickets, guests will enjoy a wide variety of tastings. The festival is the most extensive wine event in the region. The Victoria International Wine Festival continues to attract global attention. It brings wine lovers from around the world to experience the best in international and local wine culture.
